Hey Jesse,

You can help with the play, actually. I need a list of iconic or (doesn't have to be both) representative artworks that live in the following cities:

- Berlin
- Prague
- Dublin
- Seoul
- Tokyo
- Hong Kong
- Rio de J.
- Mexico City
- Delhi

Any suggestions?

Patrick

A few ideas, though not all good ones:

Prague: Three things in the old Jewish Quarter

- Statue of Moses: <http://www.visitingprague.org/moses-dreaming-of-adam>
- The two clocks (one Hebrew and counterclockwise and one Roman and clockwise) on the Jewish Town Hall

Berlin:

- Stolpersteine Project (in all of Germany, really): <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Stolpersteine>
- Memorial for the Murdered Jews of Europe: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Memorial_to_the_Murdered_Jews_of_Europe
- Brandenburger Gate (the icon of icons): http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Brandenburg_Gate
- Wall (icon of icons): http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Berlin_wall
- Soviet War Memorial (Treptow Park): http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Soviet_War_Memorial_\(Treptow_Park\))

Dublin:

- Book of Kells: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Book_of_Kells

Not sure these are the types of things you're looking for. They're just off the top of my head.

Love,
Jesse

Moses Dreaming of Adam | Visiting Prague

www.visitingprague.org

Moses Dreaming of Adam statue was sculpted by Frantisek Bilek in 1905 and situated in the small park next to the Old New Synagogue in Old Jewish Quarter in Prague. This anguished statue is one of the many statues in Prague that were hidden from the Nazis for the duration of the war, ...
